

Claudia Aronowitz BSc, MA Public Health, CPCC, ACC Ontario

Claudia is a certified coach and mediator with a focus on career transition, executive leadership coaching, training, team building, and conflict resolution.

An engaging, strategic thinker, Claudia brings an impressive track record as a senior leader and effective consensus builder. She honed career-defining strengths through 20+ years establishing and cultivating successful relationships with multi-stakeholder audiences including executives, employees, volunteers, and donors.

Today, as a coach and mediator, Claudia uses compassion, insight and straightforward communication to support her clients through change and transition. Her ability to clarify and deconstruct complex situations helps them gain perspective and confidence, while embracing new opportunities.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

For over 20 years, Claudia worked as a senior director for not-for-profit and health organizations, building national partnerships and programs and leading teams to creative solutions. Having resided and studied in numerous countries, Claudia is fluent in three languages and well equipped to embrace and understand many cultures and viewpoints. With empathy and acuity, she helps a wide diversity of clients find balanced strategies and resolutions.

"Claudia provided a caring, confidential atmosphere to establish trust. She was the catalyst needed to help us turn things around."

"Claudia was my anchor in stormy water. She helped me see the bigger picture when all I could see were challenges, boosting my clarity and my confidence. With intuition and sensitivity, she unearthed strengths that I was not seeing or was afraid to act on. Claudia knew when to support, when to push, and when to be a witness."
