

Nance C. MacLeod BA, PCC, CEC

Ontario

Nance serves as Vice-President of Career Compass Canada with a focus on Career Transition, Executive Leadership Coaching, Training, Conflict Resolution, and Teambuilding.

As a professionally trained coach Nance uses a style of empathy and honesty that cuts through the clutter to help people achieve their goals. She is an insightful, detail-oriented professional with a history of introducing fresh, forward-looking ideas that help people grow in their careers. Nance has created and facilitated very successful, well known personal and professional development seminars and retreats for corporations and the public.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Nance has served in executive management roles with both Canadian and US-owned companies, engaging and leading her teams to achieve success. She has more than two decades of experience as an instructor and corporate executive coach in leadership, engagement, conflict resolution, and professional development. She has authored over 100 articles published in The Business Link, Reason and Beyond, and Your Workplace magazines.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE AND SERVICES

Conflict Resolution	On-boarding Coach
Leadership & Team Development	Employee Engagement
360° and Leadership Assessments	Customized Workshops
Career Development and Transition	Retirement Transition
Succession Planning	Executive Coach

EDUCATION

Corporate Coach University, Corporate Coach Graduate
Certified Executive Coach
International Coaching Federation, PCC Accreditation
Brock University, Bachelor's Degree
Niagara College, Management & Leadership Development Diploma
MRG Strategic Leadership Development Assessments

Hi Nance!

*Thank you for today!
You are truly worth your weight in gold. I am revitalized,
refocused and have a new plan of attack. I have attached the progress tracker I am keeping for myself for you to review. Thanks so much again! Can't wait to see you next week!*

*Nance is innovative.
She's an out-of-the-box thinker who is very professional and has excellent knowledge of how to get a person's creative ideas working.
I recommend Nance
very highly!*